

DR. GEORGE S. DIUMENTI

Farmers State Bank Names Two More to Director Group

Two new members were elected to the board of directors of Farmers State Bank during the annual stockholders' meeting at the bank Tuesday, Jan. 19. Named to the board were Dr. George S. Diument, 600 E. Mill St., Bountiful, a physician surgeon at the Bountiful Medical Clinic, and Robert V. Sanders, of Kaysville, executive vice president and chairman of the executive committee for Clover Club Foods, Kaysville.

IN OTHER action, the stockholders re-elected all previous officers and board members.

Dr. Diument, after receiving earlier education in Utah, was graduated from the Louisiana State University Medical Center in New Orleans. After an internship at St. Mark's hospital, Salt Lake, in 1940-41, he took his residence at the hospital of the Good Samaritan in Los Angeles the following year.

HE BEGAN his practice in 1942 in Bountiful, where he has practiced ever since. One of the founders of the Bountiful Medical Center, Dr. Diument belongs to the American Medical Association, Utah State Medical Society and the Salt Lake County Medical Society. He is an active staff member of the St. Mark's hospital in Salt Lake City.

A charter member of the Bonneville Masonic Lodge in Bountiful, Lodge 31 F. & A.M., he is also a member of Argenta, Lodge 3 F. & A.M. in Salt Lake City. He is also a member of the Ambassador club.

DR. DIUMENTI, one of the most prominent physicians in Davis County, is active on the boards of directors of several other firms.

HE IS NOW executive vice president and chairman of the executive committee with Clover Club, with plants in Kaysville; Phoenix, Ariz.; Greeley, Colo., and Idaho Falls, Ida. He is a member of the board of directors of the firm.

Mr. Sanders is also a member of the board of directors with Pyke Manufacturing Co., Certified Warehouse, Inc., Taab Systems of Utah, Utah Manufacturer's Association, and he is president and board member of the Potato Chips Institute International.

THE TWO additional members raised the total membership on the Farmers State Bank board of directors to nine. "With the bank constantly expanding its services and number of depositors increasing yearly, the board felt these two

G.S. Diument, physician, dies

BOUNTIFUL — Physician and business leader George S. Diument, 67, died Sept. 8, 1982.

Dr. Diument, one of the co-founders of the Bountiful Medical Center, graduated from the University of Utah in 1936. He received his medical degree from the Louisiana State University Medical Center in 1940.

He interned at St. Mark's Hospital until 1941 and completed residency at Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles in 1942. He returned to Bountiful following his residency.

Dr. Diument was the honorary president of the Utah Medical Society from 1973 to 1974 and chief of staff at St. Mark's Hospital from 1969 to 1970. He also served as chief of the obstetrics and gynecology department at St. Mark's.

He was a member of the American Society of Abdominal Surgeons, American Medical Association and the Utah State Medical Association.

Dr. Diument was named a member of the board of directors of Farmers State Bank in Bountiful in 1965 and to the board of directors of the Rocky Mountain State Bank in 1976. He also served on the boards of the Utah State Gun Club and Manivest Corp. He was a member of the South Davis Chamber of Commerce, Lions International, the Ambassador Athletic Club and the Salt Lake City Gun Club.

He was a 32nd degree Mason and was a charter member of Bountiful Lodge No. 31 and Argenta Lodge No. 3. He was also an El Kalah Shriner.

He received the president's citation for Selective Service work from President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

A private family service will be held. The family suggests contributions to the Wasatch Academy. (See obituary, B-13.)

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1863. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's message to Congress for the first time since the beginning of the Civil War. The letter is written in a very formal and dignified style, and it is a very good example of the President's power and authority. The letter is also a very good example of the President's ability to communicate with the Congress in a clear and concise manner. The letter is a very important document, and it is a very good example of the President's power and authority.

2. The second part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1863. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's message to Congress for the first time since the beginning of the Civil War. The letter is written in a very formal and dignified style, and it is a very good example of the President's power and authority. The letter is also a very good example of the President's ability to communicate with the Congress in a clear and concise manner. The letter is a very important document, and it is a very good example of the President's power and authority.

3. The third part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1863. It is a very important document, as it contains the President's message to Congress for the first time since the beginning of the Civil War. The letter is written in a very formal and dignified style, and it is a very good example of the President's power and authority. The letter is also a very good example of the President's ability to communicate with the Congress in a clear and concise manner. The letter is a very important document, and it is a very good example of the President's power and authority.